INCLOSURE: Sketch map of rail line (Scale 1:1,000,000)

REMARKS:

A new railroad line, in the initial stages of construction, branches off of the Ying-tan-Amoy line one mile north of Chin-chuang-fan (five miles north-west of Chang-p'ing) and generally follows the Yen-shih-chi River southwest to Lung-yen. Work underway at the time of the photography included: driving heavy grading on rocky points, large cuts, and sites for large bridges. There is no evidence of construction beyond Lung-yen.
